

Freight Brokerage

Work with award-winning brokerage specialists

CLX Logistics' award-winning freight brokerage team connects carriers with available capacity to clients who need support for urgent shipments now. We provide vital freight brokerage for businesses small and large across the country and have expertise in a wide range of industries, including chemicals, auto and consumer appliances. Known for our long-term relationships with both trusted carriers and shippers in frequent need of freight brokerage, CLX Logistics is experienced in acting fast to support the missing links in streamlined supply chains.

Chemical Freight Specialty

CLX Logistics specializes in serving chemical manufacturers and shippers around the world. Our brokerage solutions satisfy specific regulatory pressures and safety and security concerns and are backed by the expertise and capabilities needed to safely move hazardous liquids and solid chemical substances to their destinations.

Trusted Carrier Network

Maintaining more than 300 established freight brokerage relationships means carriers come to us offering capacity for clients. We thoroughly vet each one, reviewing safety ratings, HAZMAT certifications and qualified insurance coverage. Then we ask the right questions upfront to match shippers with carriers to complete shipments from start to finish.

Has your carrier backed out at the last minute?

Are you unable to find a truck for a shipment you need delivered?

Turn to the Specialists

Outsourcing freight transportation instead of working directly with carriers is often the easiest way to guarantee a shipment reaches its destination fast. Shippers can skip the paperwork and solve pressing problems with the support of always-on professionals who are experts in their field. CLX Logistics finds, books and dispatches trucks immediately and maintains clear communication with clients through phone and email for hassle-free logistics solutions.
